

Alcohol and other drug outcome measure (ADOM)

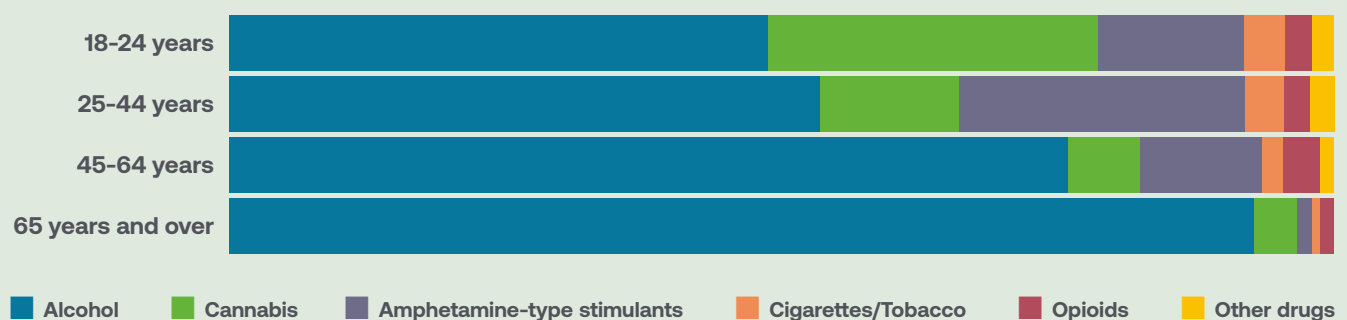

July 2020 – June 2021

This infographic uses PRIMHD data for the period July 2020 to June 2021 and provides selected information from ADOM report 11.

Main substance of concern for ADOM treatment start collection

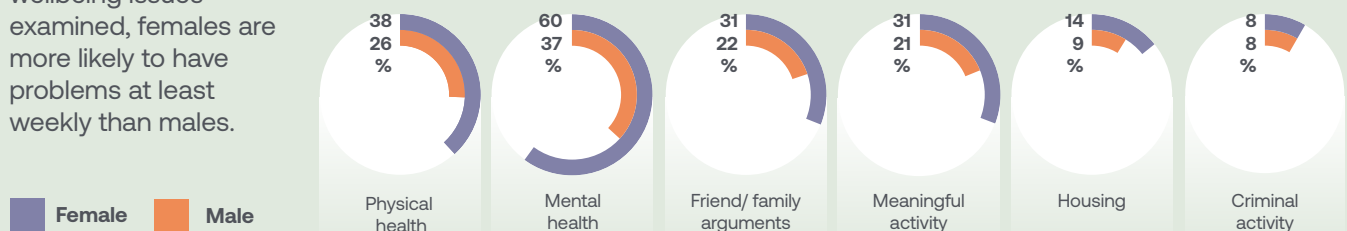

People starting treatment most commonly report alcohol as their main substance of concern. As tāngata whai ora age this becomes more evident.

Lifestyle and wellbeing for ADOM treatment start collection

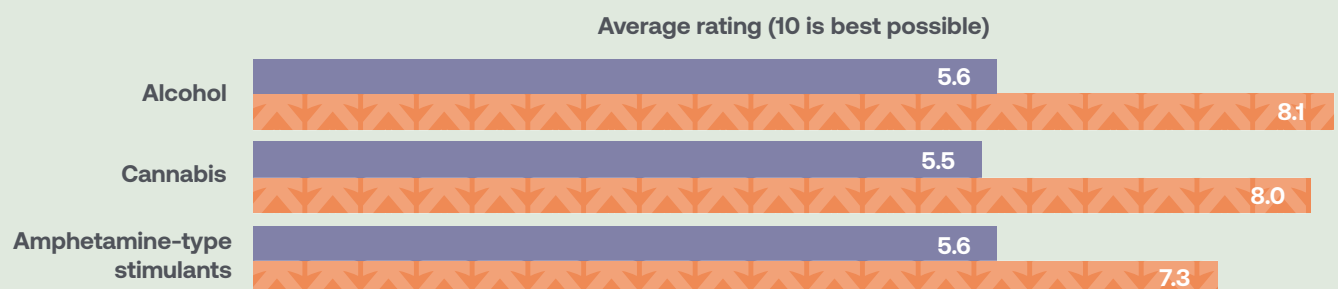

For all lifestyle and wellbeing issues examined, females are more likely to have problems at least weekly than males.

At least weekly problems with...

Progress on recovery goals between the start and end of treatment¹

Treatment actively supports people to achieve their recovery goals, across all main substances of concern.

1. Matched pairs refers to treatment start and end collections for the same people.

Start End